DAVENPORT

Burned to Death.—While playing with fire in a stove at her home, on the Blue Grass road, Friday, the clothing of seven-year-old Margaret Ruhde caught fire and she received burns from which she died. The family were in the yard at the time of the accident. When the child's clothing first became ignited, she screamed. The mother ran to the house, and saw the little girl enveloped in the flames. She became ignited, she screamed. The about the body of the child and extinguished the flames. Dr. Strohnbehn was called but the girl was so seriously burned that it was impossible to save her life. There was hardly a square inch of skin on the little body. That was not burned by the fire. Her face was burned so badly that it resembled a mere mass of charred flesh. The child, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ruhde, was born Feb. 15, 1906, in Scott county. She is survived by the parents, one brother, Ernest, and four sisters, Emma, Dorothea, Marie and Louise.

Two Carloads Forwarded.—It is doubtful if any city the size of Davenport has contributed more generously to the relief of the Ohio flood sufferers than Davenport. The local contributions so far have reached the magnificent sum of over $8,000 in cash and two carloads of clothing and provisions. The first car left Davenport Friday evening over the Rock Island road to Chicago and there was switched over to the New York Central. It was billed to the mayor of Columbus. A second car was forwarded over the same route Saturday evening.

Hirschard, 1051 Arlington avenue, in the great flood region of Indiana last week. Leaving Nashville, Tenn., Monday, on the Dixie Flyer, Miss Hirschard was one of 200 people, who, although escaping with their lives, nevertheless saw enough of the great floods and endured suffer-client hardships to make the journey one long to be remembered.

The prisoner will be returned to Davenport for trial on a charge of larceny, it being alleged that he stole clothing from the S. & L. Clothing company in the sum of $28. ### American Gardens.

Speaking one day at a color conference, in which pictures of the beautiful gardens and statuary at Versailles were shown, Caroll Beckwith, the artist, made a comparison between the methods of French and American landscape architects.

"The French are better gardeners," he said. "They have a lighter touch. The trouble with Americans is that when they make gardens they often call in graveyard sculptors and architects. The result is that our formal gardens sometimes look like cemeteries."—New York Post.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE

Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make It Grow.

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion.

All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden sage and sulphur, combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color, in a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as Nature intended it should.

Don't neglect your hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at any drug store for fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give you money back if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance.
